

Jewish Art Workshop in JP!

This workshop invites young adults (age 22-40) to explore the Jewish theme of Tikvah (hope) through visual imagery that may later be incorporated in a community mural project in Roxbury. We will brainstorm together and each participant will create a small painting to take home. All materials are included for this free event. There is a suggested donation of $5 to go towards mural painting costs for a similarly themed mural working with people in recovery from substance abuse in the Latino community in Roxbury. Participants may have the opportunity to volunteer to help with the mural project as well.

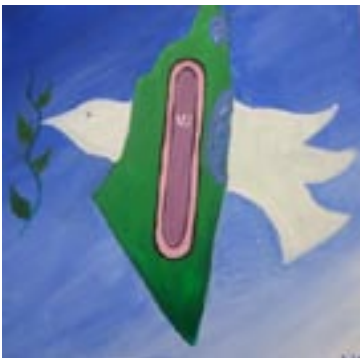

When? Tuesday July 13th, 6:30-8pm

Where? Nehar Shalom
